Kentucky Janes.
HARVEY & BIRCH have several hundred yards of the above article, which they offer at 87 cents per yard—worth $1.00.

Also, a very large lot of superior BROGAN SHOES, assorted from six to fourteen inches, as well as CASTINGS of all sizes, &c. In addition to the above, every article usually called for.

Fayette, Nov. 14, 1840.—36-30a.

New Establishment. TAILORING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

O. S. Coleman & John M. Searey,
HARVEY the pleasure to announce to the citizens of Glasgow and of the surrounding country, that, having connected themselves in business, in the town of Glasgow, and having made arrangements to carry on their trade on an extensive scale, they are now prepared to receive orders for work, pledging themselves to execute, not only in a workmanlike order, according to the general acceptance of the term, but in the latest and most approved fashion. The senior flatters himself, that, during his long residence in Glasgow and its vicinity, he has gained a reputation, "by his works" which will vie with that of any of his brothers, as a workman, and the Junior, although not as well known in the immediate vicinity of Glasgow, he believes from his long experience in the business at Huntsville, Randolph county and at Fayette, he can speak with confidence of his skill and ability; he is willing at any rate to stand or fall by the reputation gained at the above named places.

Cutting attended to with promptness, and the same attention paid as if the making was to be done in the shop.

Reports of the latest fashions received regularly from Paris, London, New York and Philadelphia.

N. B. Coats and Habits made in the latest fashion, and the Ladies may rest assured that their Coats, and Habits, will be made in an improved and we trust approved manner.

O. S. COLEMAN,
JOHN M. SEAREY,
Glasgow, August 29th, 1840. 24—30a.

Hays' Lamentation.
The only true and genuine Lamentation, and so declared by the oath of Mr. Solomon Hays, has never been made known to any person before, nor is it to be made known to any person, unless they have the right to prepare the said genuine Lamentation, which has established a reputation for effectually curing the Piles in every case, and in all the various stages of the complaint; also Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Sores and Ulcers of long standing. All who have ever used it are highly pleased with its effects, and all who are in need of cures for any of the complaints mentioned, are respectfully requested to ask any one who has ever used it. And we refer with confidence to all who know of the article, and especially to Matthew J. Myers, Esq. Athens, N. Y., and Gen. Duff Green, late of Washington city, all of whom speak in the strongest terms and with the fullest confidence from personal application and knowledge of its positive and never failing cures.

LOOK OUT.
Some scoundrels have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO., that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are deceived. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

SOLOMON HAYS.
Sold wholesale by Comstock & Co., 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., and by nearly every storekeeper in America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Dr. TALBOT.

Look Out!!
"Caution" is the Pledge of Safety.

An attack of the "Pile" may be positively prevented by using the precautionary symptoms are felt the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT—There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel the first symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most perfect proof.

None genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. written on the wrapper.

SOLOMON HAYS.
Sold at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Dr. TALBOT, Fayette.

Caution Circular.
To Druggists and Country Merchants.

Those valuable articles OLD DRIDGE'S BALM OF COLMBA for the Hair and HAYS' LINIMENT for the Piles, &c., have been extensively counterfeited. Those wanting those preparations, will please always write, when ordering from any other house, for Comstock's articles. The true articles have the names or signatures always on the wrapper, and vendors will do well to remember that when ordering, as the imitations are so exposed to every eye, the preparations are so exposed to every eye, that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

Our friends if they find the Union are requested to give it immediate notice, by letter, should any of the counterfeits appear in their respective places.

COMSTOCK & CO.
Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street, N. Y.

Oldridge's Balm of Columbia.
This article was first introduced into the New York market about 20 years since, and from its superior virtues in relieving hair from its fall-out, keeping the head free from dandruff, (a most distressing trifling on a gentleman's coat collar) and giving a softness and beautiful lustre to the hair, has induced some persons to copy it up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, some of which stand the test of trial, professing as most of them do, to be oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurious to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no other article will make the hair grow rapidly and of a good quality, but the Balm of Columbia, and no article, purporting to be the Balm of Columbia, is genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. on the outside wrapper. Some have been deceived and obtained a counterfeit article for the true and genuine Balm of Columbia. Remember to look for the name of Comstock & Co. on the wrapper, before you purchase, and get none but the genuine. Don't be deceived with the assurance that any without the name of Comstock & Co. is made in the same way, and is just as good, all such pretensions are false and known to be so by the Counterfeiters.

Sold Wholesale and Retail, only at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., by Comstock & Co., and by nearly every storekeeper throughout America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Doctor TALBOT.

To the Bald Headed.
This is to certify, that I have been bald about 20 years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case and Co.'s store, who had it from Comstock & Co.

Prospectus of the Times.
The Proprietors of the Times have awaited the discontinuance of the Stockholder, as the period most opportune for the realization of the hope which they have been encouraged, in relation to such an extension of their subscription list, as shall render their establishment permanent, by relieving its conductors from all fear of embarrassment.

The election of General HARRISON—now regarded as a matter of absolute certainty—and the consequent change of Administration—the condition of the country—and the great measures of national policy, which must be discussed and settled without delay, lead to the belief, that we are but entering upon an epoch of unsurpassed interest and importance in the history of our country.

In addition to this, every man may now feel himself able to take a paper.

The political character of the "Times" will remain the same as heretofore, although we hope soon to change its looks, from those of a coup and censure, to those of commendation—and, in this view of the case, as less space will suffice us, or political discussion, we shall be enabled to render to our readers a weekly compend of what ever else is transpiring in the world around it.

We shall have a competent force at Washington, and at Jefferson, and thus be enabled to present the earliest and most authentic accounts of the proceedings of the National and State Legislatures.

The Markets, including weekly prices current in St. Louis and New Orleans, with whatever else may seem of interest or advantage to the agricultural community, shall receive proper and regular attention. In short—in addition to the hope inspired by our reliance, of being able to maintain, unimpaired, the high political reputation which, we expect to render it an interesting and valuable Family Newspaper, which may be looked into, with profit and pleasure, by all classes of society.

As the period of the approaching Presidential election will present a convenient opportunity of testing our reliance upon the liberality of our friends, we shall cherish it as a favor if each of our present subscribers will show this prospectus to his neighbors and acquaintances, and forward us a list of such names as may be procured directly afterwards.

TERMS.—Three dollars, payable at any time before President Harrison is inaugurated.—Four dollars at the end of the year.

Business at Washington.
A CARD.—The undersigned will be in Washington city, from December until March, and will have leisure to attend to claims, or business of any kind, with the Departments or individuals. It is suggested to his correspondents, or others desiring his services, to open their correspondence national day, as the requirements and formalities for settling accounts at the government offices may be such, in some instances, as to require subsequent correspondence with his principals. Letters addressed to him, according to his signature below, will avoid any confusion at the Post office, or elsewhere, in consequence of their being a gentleman of the same name a resident of the city.

Boston Notion,
THE LARGEST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD.

The spirit of the age is utilitarian. Improvement is stamped upon the face of every thing. All the useful arts are progressing with unparalleled rapidity; and the heart of printing is coming in for its full share of the common improvement. Determined not to be outdone in any thing that pertains to his profession, where there is a fair chance for exertion and enterprise, the undersigned has determined upon issuing a sheet twice the size of the Boston Weekly Times, (and to take the place of that paper) and will contain eight columns more than the Boston Journal. This sheet will be called the BOSTON NOTION, and it is determined it shall fully sustain a comparison so full of meaning, and so interwoven with the established character of our Yankee City: It will be the largest newspaper in the world—and no exception, and will be printed on a sheet twice the size of the Boston Weekly Times, (and to take the place of that paper) and will contain eight columns more than the Boston Journal. This sheet will be called the BOSTON NOTION, and it is determined it shall fully sustain a comparison so full of meaning, and so interwoven with the established character of our Yankee City: It will be the largest newspaper in the world—and no exception, and will be printed on a sheet twice the size of the Boston Weekly Times, (and to take the place of that paper) and will contain eight columns more than the Boston Journal.
